

Dear Sir,
Please leave the Do Not Call List of New Jersey the way it is.
Since it went into effect, I have more time to spend with my family, attend to important business and rest rather than get interrupted with these unwanted calls, specially in the evenings.
I am sure you mean well, but we need this law as it is.